

Research Methods in Management

Full names of the professors: PhD in Economics, Petrovskaya I.A.

Place of the course in the Master's programme: foundation part, 1 trimester.

Brief content of the course: Management concepts and paradigms; Theoretical foundations of research, hypotheses and variables; Quantitative research methods; Qualitative research methods; Brief introduction to statistical analysis using SPSS.

The discipline is aimed at building students' knowledge in determining relevant scientific and practical topics in the field of management, management research methods and in developing skills in applying these methods when conducting research in the field of management. The academic fundamentals of management, management paradigms, the subject and subject areas of management as a science are studied in the discipline; the results of classic and latest research in management; methods of forming a database for the upcoming research, analysis of a specific organization (unit), quantitative and qualitative research methods in management.

Workload of the discipline is 3 ECTS, 108 hours.

Language of instruction: English.

Course midterm control is conducted in the form of final written examination.